

"Painting Fast and Loose on the Urban Corner"

An Outdoor Watercolor Workshop with *David Peterson Saturday, September 10, 2011 - 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. - Fee - $40

Workshop location: Patris S12 Gallery, 1200 S Street, Sacramento.

Instructor: David Peterson.

In this workshop: Students of all levels will come to this workshop prepared to paint outdoors. The point of the class is to practice painting fast and loose from life! David will show participants how everyday urban subjects viewed from a street corner can become images for lively and fresh paintings. After a brief lecture and outdoor demo by David, participants will paint outdoors making value plans and sketches, then paint a watercolor or two. David will work closely with each painter. After painting, we'll assemble for a critique before dismissal. We are going to have fun!

Materials: Bring your own stuff. Bring the outdoor watercolor kit you normally use, a light-weight easel, half-sheet board and paper, a pochade box or small table or stool to set a palette on with a selection of your favorite paints and brushes. David uses a 2-inch flat brush for most of his painting and suggests you do too! Supply list and assistance with painting gear provided upon request. Don't have stuff? Add $10 for materials, paper, paint and use of David's brushes and easels.

About the Instructor: David is an "extremely active and thriving local and well-known watercolor artist."
