

“Paint the Towne, Olde Sacramento”

An Outdoor Workshop with David Peterson
Saturday,
May 12, 2012
9:00 a.m. to 1:00
p.m.
Fee - $40

Location: Corner of Front Street and Jay, opposite Fat City. Bring quarters for on street parking. There is plenty of spaces right where we will meet at 9 am. There are rest rooms, shade and places to sit down. We can eat a Bratwurst from the Sausage Junction during the critique.

“Paint the Towne” is a 4-hour Workshop about painting watercolor creatively, boldly from life.

Participants at all levels of experience will sketch and paint outdoors. After a short lecture and demo, the class will work outdoors making a design and value sketches and then paint a half-sheet watercolor. David will work with you by step. We will wind up with a 30-minute critique session. The purpose of this workshop is for participants to learn how to paint fast and loose from life. It is about creativity, not technique!

The subject matter is, as indicated, is Old Sacramento. This is an exercise in creating a beautiful, moving painting out of a familiar urban subject we all love.

Materials: Students will bring the watercolor kit they normally use, prepared to paint half- sheet sized paintings. David will have some easels to loan or sell. If you are new to watercolor you may arrange to a pay a $10 fee for paper and paint and use the instructor’s palettes and brushes.

About the Instructor: Renewing himself with the passion to paint that he had as a 19- year-old, David now paints hundreds of paintings a year, mainly outdoors throughout Sacramento County. David portrays the familiar scenes of our neighborhood in a humorous and enigmatic way. Since 2003, he has been accepted into dozens of juried shows and has won over four-dozen awards, recently winning 2nd Place at “Aquaareas 2011”, Watercolor Artists of Sonoma County Annual Exhibit. David’s work can be seen in Sacramento at Papaya’s Cafe, Sacramento Fine Arts Center, and the Blue Moon Gallery.

Please RSVP and pay in advance. if possible.
